REPORTS:

FIRE DEPARTMENT: President, Brian Farkas stated October is Fire Prevention Month. Monthly report was not available.

POLICE DEPARTMENT: Monthly report was available.

ROAD DEPARTMENT: Monthly report was available.

ZONING OFFICER: Jeff Frye stated that the residents at 100 Cannelton Road have been contacted several times regarding the old equipment on their property that is in violation of the Township Code. The residents have requested to erect a fence to conceal the equipment instead of having to remove it. Mr. Frye explained that according to the township ordinance, they aren't permitted to erect a fence just to conceal blight nor would the fence be high enough, he plans on following up with a violation letter. Todd Fryer applied for a building permit and is being denied because the container does not meet the setbacks. Jeff Frye also mentioned he will investigate the Sherrill properties regarding the junk were the double wide trailer is located.

ENGINEERING: Jeff Frye stated firstly, he met with Megan Greene regarding the comfort station and that he will provide Megan with drawings. Secondly, that the DSA is stabilized but there is a few spots that are still soft but believes if they were grated, that they would dry out.

Thirdly, the MS4 was approved for a waiver.

RECREATION BOARD: Susan Householder stated that the Recreation Board held a Trunk Sale Fundraiser on Saturday, September 8, 2018.

SOLICITOR: Nothing to Report

HOST MUNICIPAL INSPECTION: Report was not available.
